Updates from Humana People to People India

"NASSCOM SOCIAL INNOVATION FORUM 2016" Award Winner

Winner at USAID/India Read Alliance’s Early Grade Reading Innovation Challenge

Humana People to People India (HPPI) is pleased to announce that its Kadam project has been declared a winner in the Early Grade Reading Innovation Challenge (EGRIC) conducted by the USAID/India-Center for Knowledge Societies READ Alliance at READ Connect 2016. Adjudged one of the winners out of 101 applicant organizations, Kadam project aims to improve reading levels in 30,600 children over 2 years in around 200 Government primary schools in the State of Madhya Pradesh, and build a cost-effective teacher support system through the District Institutes of Education and Training (DIETs).

Addressing the slide in Reading abilities of School Children: Read More

'Mein Pragati' - Financial Capability Building of Poor Women in Rajasthan

HPPI in partnership with CRISIL Ltd. /CRISIL Foundation has commenced ‘Mein Pragati’- a full-life cycle financial literacy project to impact and empower 81,000 poor rural women and their households in approximately 750 villages across 19 blocks in three districts of Eastern Rajasthan.

Empowerment & Financial Inclusion of poor women: Read More

HPPI & Educate A Child sign agreement to reach 30,000 Out-of-School-Children

To accelerate our reach & impact on Out-of-School-Children (OOSC), HPPI has partnered with Educate a Child to enrol and mainstream 30,000 OOSC into formal schools, in the State of Haryana and in the National Capital Region of Delhi. Through the establishment of 400 Step Up Centers, the project will address barriers in the access to quality education of OOSC over the course of a three-year period.

Addressing inhibiting factors in OOSC enrolment & retention: Read More

GET OUR DAILY UPDATES ON THE GO
Subscribe Share Past Issues RSS